

BILL (Buddy) AMERSON

Buddy currently serves as a UQMI Instructor. His specialty is teaching Safety.

Buddy draws on nearly thirty years of management and operations experience. These experiences include leadership positions in organizations including packaging, home textiles, food and beverage, and transportation. He is a member of the National Safety Council, National Fire Protection Association, and the American Society of Safety Engineers and continues to emphasize occupational safety and service to employers in the arena of workplace safety.

Buddy is active in the community, served as a high school football coach for over twenty years, and currently serves as a member of Kannapolis Parks and Recreation Commission as well as church related activities. You may occasionally hear him during radio broadcasts as he often serves as an analyst for local sporting events after a brief stint with Sirius Satellite Radio (2006-7). Buddy is committed to the concept of servant leadership and learning as a lifelong pursuit. He resides in Kannapolis, NC with his wife Joy.

Bachelor of Business Management, Catawba College

Masters Business Administration, Pfeiffer University

Manager of Environmental Safety and Health (MESH), NC Department of Labor/National Safety Council
Construction MESH, NC Department of Labor/National Safety Council

Advanced Safety Certification, National Safety Council

Member-ASSE, NSC, NFPA