

Daniel Stoelb

Currently serves on the Board of Directors and is the Dean of Faculty and Professor. He is a former Chapter Chairperson

Dan has over 25 years experience in industry, holding positions from Front-Line Supervisor; Industrial Engineering Manager; Production Control Manager; Safety Director; Lean Champion; Trainer; Plant Manager and VP of Manufacturing. Dan has worked with companies in the Wood and Furniture Industries; Plastics; Electronics; Metals; Printing and Automotive industry.

Dan is a frequent speaker at meetings and training seminars, and has published many articles on Lean; Toyota Production System; Change Management; Leadership and Safety.

MS: Quality Management 2010

Certifications:

- Certified Lean Master
- Certified HR Manager
- Certified HR Professional Professional
- Certified Office Manager
- Certified Project Manager
- Certified Sales Professional
- Certified Manager/Supervisor
- Certified Ten3 Trainer & Consultant

Professional organizations

- APICS (American Production and Inventory Control Society)
- AIIE (American Institute of Industrial Engineers)
- AMA (American Management Association)
- SME (Society of Manufacturing Engineers)
- ASQ (American Society for Quality)
- ITI (Industrial Time Study Institute)
- Peer Resources Network
- The Society for the Leadership of Change (SLC)
- World Safety Organization (WSO)