

Certification Category
CERTIFIED SAFETY SPECIALIST

CERTIFICATION
Certification Description	This certification provides proof that the applicant understands team behaviors and can apply those skills in establishing a functionally working team environment. Certification denotes proficiency and understanding of the direct and indirect costs associated with effective written safety programs, how to compute indirect costs of safety program failures, and methods used to communicate this understanding to stakeholders and corporate decision makers.
Prerequisites	None
Certification Requirements	1 hour proctored exam. Passing score of 80% Completion of 1 project that demonstrates the successful application of safety techniques.
Certification Costs	$75
Renewal Required	na
DEGREE
Degree Course Description	Prep course consist of 4 weeks of online & telephone support from UQMI Instructor. This is an elective prep course is required for the degree program. The degree course provides direction and support to the student regarding specific knowledge of materials and assistance in project completion.
Course Materials	Course materials supplied by instructor in Word, Excel, or Adobe Acrobat as needed via email. Internet availability required as well as ability to open MS Office documents and Adobe documents.
Course Costs	$240 (additional weeks may be purchased at $60 per week)
DEGREE COSTS (course + certification)	$275 w/o books